

The FCC should not lessen state laws with Do Not Call Lists. We pay with hard earned money for the telephone. I share no electricity, water or gas with anyone nor do I have to share my Phone. We should make telemarketers pay us for using my utility on my time. Not to mention the trouble with them calling while my child is sleeping. I love indianas law.